

Garden Song

We have a garden – Jesus! What a sight it is.
We did it all ourselves.
We needed food, but we're too broke to buy it,
so we decided on a garden.

Peas, bean and carrots, onions,
Squash, radishes, and corn, Lettuce, okra, and spinach and red tomatoes, very red tomatoes,
big potatoes, fat and brown potatoes,
And cabbage! And pot. Bum Ba Da
Plant a radish, get a radish, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, -
We brought the seeds and then we planted them inside the little holes we dug in the neat rows that we made with hoes and sticks and poles.
Now the plant have started in the grow, and grow.

Our garden is alive, Our garden is alive, Our garden is alive.
And growing well in our own back yard.

Hallelujah, hooray, amen!
Hallelujah, hooray, amen!
Hallelujah, hooray, amen!
Amen, amen, amen! Amen

Men:
We bought the seeds and then we planted them
inside the little holes
we dug inside the neat rows -

Ladies:
We have a garden with rows and rows
of edibles of all description.
We love our garden.

We are proud of every seed
we have the food to meet our need forever and ever, our garden forever!

And ever and ever and ever and ever,
And ever and ever and ever and ever,

Hallelujah, hooray, amen!
Hallelujah, hooray, amen!
Hallelujah, hooray, amen!

We have a garden -
Jesus! What a sight it is.

Hallelujah, horray, amen!
Hallelujah, horray, amen!
Hallelujah, horray, amen!
We have a garden
A-men
We have a garden
A-men

A-men!
A—men!
